

REGNUM INSTITUTE STUDENT COVENANT

The Student will commit to:

1. Accept and observe the student general policies as outlined by the Regnum Institute, which the student has carefully read on its entirety
2. Develop a consistent spiritual discipline, to grow deeper in his/her relationship with God, and commit to a life style that reflects the character of Christ in all areas of his/her life
3. Constantly grow and develop spiritually, intellectually and in his/her God given calling and assignment
4. Remain accountable, open to spiritual guidance, ministering and coaching from the leadership of The Regnum Institute
5. Continue to regularly attend and to be an active participant of a congregation
6. Continue to observe a healthy financial and giving discipline of offering and tithes to the congregation body where the student attends, and agrees that tuition payments will not reduce in any way his/her previous commitment to said congregation
7. Having a positive attitude, being flexible and open to explore various Kingdom perspectives, and concepts, that although different in approach to his/her own, are intended to enrich and provide a well rounded Kingdom Culture.
8. Accept and constantly put into practice what is stated on the equipping model and strategy
